Presented by Idaho Wine Commission

Celebrating Caldwell's Undiscovered Wine Region

Sunny Slope Wine Region in Caldwell is known as "Idaho's Wine Country," featuring some of the state's best wineries. There are nearly twenty family-owned and operated vineyards and wineries in this region and Destination Caldwell, in partnership with Idaho Wine commission, has created a wine festival to gather some of them in one place so you can taste what everyone's been talking about.

If you're just growing in your knowledge of wine or you've been a connoisseur for decades, the Taste of Caldwell Wine Festival was created for you. Chat it up with the knowledgeable growers/vintners as you sip their finest selections. Get ready to delight your taste buds with the unexpected flavors of this region—celebrated nationally and rising in popularity among wine communities across the country.

-Live Music on the ICCU Main Stage at Indian Creek Plaza:

The Midnight Jazz Cats

Saturday, May 17 | 5:00 - 6:15 PM

Celebrate America's original art form with high-energy swing, bossa novas, jazz standards, and western swing from the 1920s to the 1970s. Based in Boise and the Treasure Valley, "The Cats" bring vintage flair, sharp cat ties, and a whole lot of moxie—plus their feline mascot, Ella Fitzkitty—for a purr-fectly unforgettable performance.

Órale!

Saturday, May 17, 2025 | 6:30 - 8:00 PM

Get ready to dance—Órale! is a high-energy, 7-piece ensemble that fuses Motown, funk, soul, and Latin rhythms into an irresistible groove. Since bursting onto the Treasure Valley scene in 2023, they've brought electrifying performances to stages like the Sapphire Room and the Soul Food Festival. Fronted by the dynamic Koki Gonzalez, whose soulful vocals and magnetic stage presence light up every show, Órale! delivers music that moves bodies and bridges generations. Their mission is simple: make you move, feel good, and shout Órale!

###

About Destination Caldwell - Destination Caldwell is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization whose mission is to leverage Caldwell's agricultural heritage to promote economic growth. The organization aims to make Caldwell a destination for locally produced wines along the Sunnyslope Wine Trail, market fresh goods, and farm to fork dining. Destination Caldwell is also the City of Caldwell's managing partner of Indian Creek Plaza, with the intent to produce 250 events and activities each year to attract locals and visitors to downtown Caldwell. The Plaza is located in the core area of downtown Caldwell's retail district on the corner of Kimball Avenue and Arthur Street and is equipped with an ice-skating ribbon and rink, a stage for concerts, live entertainment and movies, outdoor seating, and two splash pads.
