Proclamation

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH 2026

WHEREAS, domestic violence affects individuals and families of every age, background, culture, and community, and its impact can extend far beyond the home; and

WHEREAS, everyone deserves to live free from fear, violence, abuse, and coercive control; and

WHEREAS, domestic violence can have lasting effects on survivors, children, families, workplaces, schools, and the greater community; and

WHEREAS, raising awareness, promoting healthy relationships, supporting survivors, and holding offenders accountable are essential to creating safer communities; and

WHEREAS, Advocates Against Family Violence (AAFV) serves individuals and families in Caldwell and throughout Canyon County by providing crisis intervention, safety planning, advocacy, counseling, emergency shelter through Hope's Door, prevention education, and other supportive services; and

WHEREAS, AAFV works alongside law enforcement, courts, healthcare providers, schools, community organizations, businesses, and residents to strengthen the community response to domestic violence and connect survivors with resources and support; and

WHEREAS, Domestic Violence Awareness Month provides an opportunity to honor survivors, remember those whose lives have been lost to domestic violence, recognize the professionals and advocates who serve victims, and encourage every member of our community to take a stand against abuse;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Eric Phillips, Mayor of the City of Caldwell, Idaho, do hereby proclaim the month of October 2026 as in the City of Caldwell and encourage all residents to learn the signs of domestic violence, support survivors, promote healthy and respectful relationships, and join Advocates Against Family Violence in building a community where every individual can live with hope, healing, strength, and safety.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Caldwell to be affixed this 9th day of September, 2026.

Eric Phillips, Mayor, City of Caldwell
