CITY OF CALDWELL PRESS RELEASE

DATE: June 4, 2025

Since 2014, Family Fun Day has brought the community together for a day of connection, joy and learning. Now in its 11th year, this event continues to serve over 600 children and their families, bringing the total number of attendees to well over 1,000 each year. Entirely free and open to the public, Family Fun Day remains a highlight of the summer for the Caldwell community.

Date: Saturday, June 7

Time: 10:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. Location: Serenity Park, 1100 Dearborn Street, Caldwell

Activities Include:

- Kids Fishing Skills Challenge (10 a.m. - 1 p.m.)
- Chalk art
- Family Color Run/Walk (11 a.m.)
- Bounce houses
- Obstacle courses
- Free games and prizes
- Vendor booths (10 a.m. - 1 p.m.)
- Free BBQ lunch for kids (Starting at 11:30 a.m.)

We extend heartfelt thanks to our food and service sponsors, whose generosity ensures a full, delicious BBQ lunch for all attendees at no cost: Franz Bakery; Caldwell Grocery Outlet; Albertsons Cleveland Store; Caldwell Housing Authority; Walmart Superstore; and JustServe Volunteers.

“We love participating each year and seeing the youth and families enjoy this day, have fun, and also learn about the many resources available in our community,” said Tricia Lofton, Advocates Against Family Violence.

“Family Fun Day allows families to unplug, get outside, and enjoy the outdoors with others in our community. We invite a wide variety of vendors who are ready to provide you with resources and opportunities right here in Caldwell. Everything at Family Fun Day is free including lunch for the children, bounce houses, the fishing skills challenge, color run, and much more,” said Joanna Bartrop, Event Director.
