Caldwell Police Department Officers Go Beyond to Assist Mother with Chocking Child

(Caldwell): On Saturday, May 7, 2016, Cpl. Matthews and Officer Ivie of the Caldwell Police Department responded to a call for an 11-month old boy who was choking. The mother could not accompany her son to the hospital in the ambulance due to other children at home (the twin brother to the 11-month and a 3-year old child). Both of the officers stayed with the little boy at the hospital, held him, and even changed diapers until the mother arrived. Caldwell Mayor Garret Nancolas states, "Caldwell Police Officers are not only great officers but they are great people who care."

Caldwell Police Department was recently recognized nationally for this act of kindness on ABC Evening News – May 8, 2016.
