PRESS RELEASEDate: 4/15/20

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

In light of Governor Little's modified social distancing order issued Wednesday, April 15, the City of Caldwell will be opening Purple Sage and Fairview Golf Courses beginning Friday, April 17th at 9 a.m. with the following social distancing modifications:

- Purple Sage will be open to the back nine holes only Monday-Fri. The front nine course will undergo maintenance for the golf cart path. All 18 holes will be open Saturday and Sunday.
- The driving range at Purple Sage will be closed until further notice.
- Clubhouses will be open for golf transactions and limited concession purchases. All other meal service is suspended until further notice.
- Cart rentals are limited to one per person with no additional riders.
- Purple Sage and Fairview have significantly increased their sanitizing and cleaning efforts in order to provide the safest possible environment for golfers.
- All other city buildings will remain closed to the public, as previously implemented. Full services are still available via phone, email or through our website, www.cityofcaldwell.org.

We greatly appreciate the patience from our golfers and community. The City of Caldwell recognizes that recreation is an important part of remaining healthy. We wish to encourage recreation while remaining in compliance with both Idaho and the federal government's social distancing orders. We ask that those using the courses remain respectful of the modifications. The health of our citizens remains our highest priority and we continue to work in conjunction with our local health districts, state and federal governments to ensure the wellbeing of our community.
